Steps to follow to install the Cucumber

plugin: Cucumber Installation can be done in two ways Method:1

1. Open Eclipse
2. Goto Menu bar->Help-> Eclipse Marketplace ->select

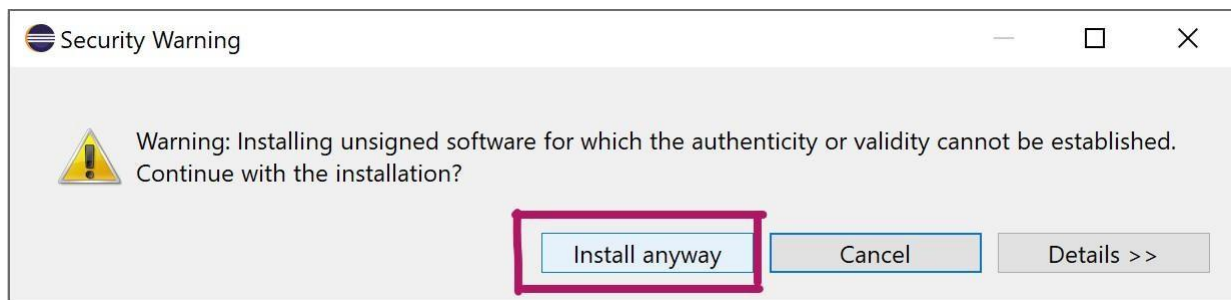

3. Type in Search box as Cucumber

4. Click Install in the Cucumber Eclipse Plugin

5. Select I agree and click finish button

6. Wait for the software to build and then click install anyway

Now restart your eclipse

Method-

2 Method

2:

1.Goto Help ->Install new software
2.Click Add and name->Cucumber
Plugin

location-> https://cucumber.github.io/cucumber-eclipse/update-site/

3.Ensure the cucumber Eclipse plugin is enabled and then click Next

*Note: If the cucumber plugin is already installed in your eclipse, the next button will be displayed

4. Select Accept License Agreement and click finish button

5. Wait for the software to build and then click install anyway

Now restart your eclipse
Now Add Natural Plugin –Done in two ways

Method:1

1. Goto Menu bar->Help-> Eclipse Marketplace - >select 2.Type in Search box as Natural

3.Click Install in Natural 0.9 plugin

4.Make sure the plugins are selected and then click confirm

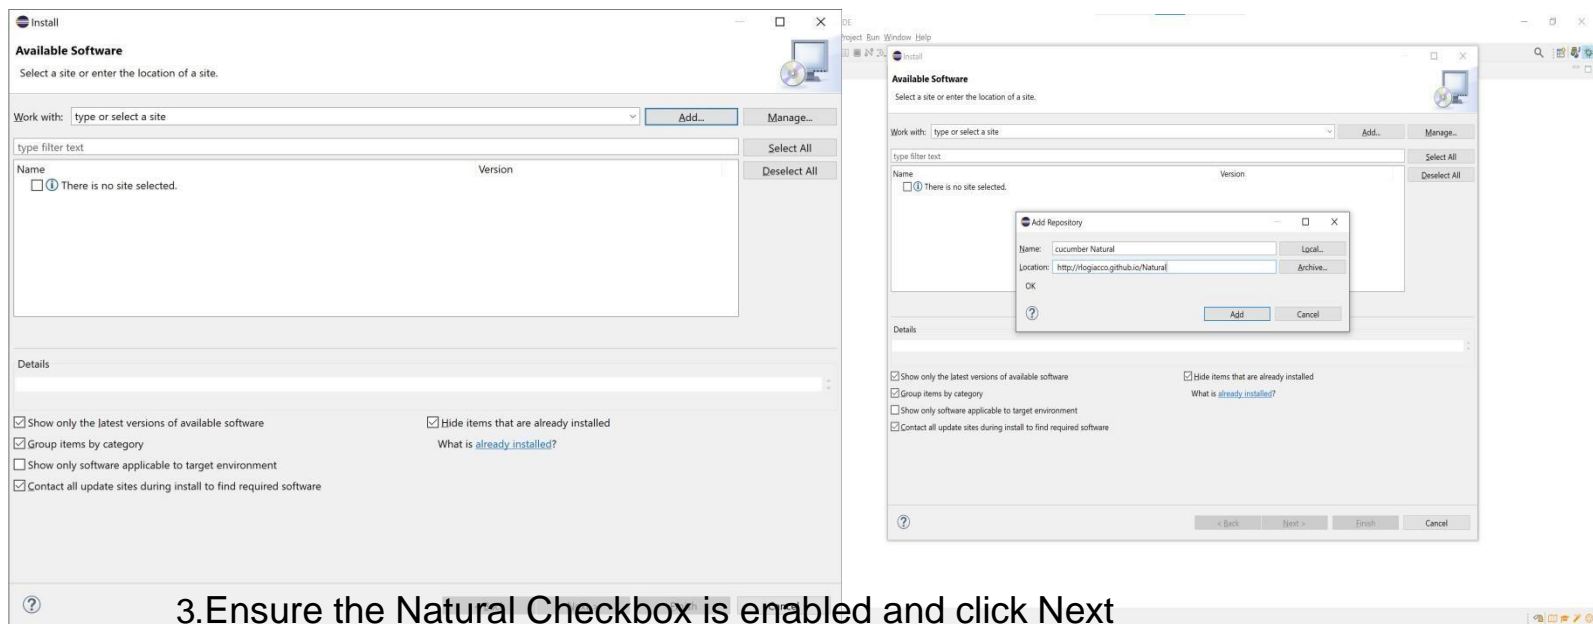

5.Select I agree and click finish button.

6.Click Install anyway and then restart your Eclipse

Method 2:

1.Goto Help ->Install new software
2.Click Add and give the link at the location>http://rlogiacco.github.io/Natural and provide a name for your plugin

3.Ensure the Natural Checkbox is enabled and click Next

4. Select Accept License Agreement and click finish button

5. Wait for the software to build and then click install anyway

Now restart your eclipse